I certify that the information herein is factually accurate. I understand that I am responsible for ordering my official transcripts with proof I have earned my bachelor's degree. The transcripts must go from college to college and are not considered official if they go through the student. Also, official transcripts become the property of the college and will not be shared or forwarded. I authorize the college to use data in reports as may be necessary. When I enroll at McPherson College, I agree to familiarize myself with all rules and regulations and abide by them. Intentional falsification of any part of this document may result in immediate dismissal from the college.
